

The CCS - IHSA Annual Conference &
Aistir - bringing international history students together
NUI Galway 28 Feabhra – 1 Márta 2008

Thursday, 28 FebruaryAistir trip to Burren - workshops on methodologies and fundingFriday, 29 February*NUI Galway MA in History Biographies Seminar*Convenor: Dr Caitriona ClearVenue: The Moore Institute, 09:15 – 14:45Dr Robert Potsmouth *John Wilson CrokerAidan Enright, Queen’s University Belfast (IHSA)
*The Political Life of Charles Owen O’Conor (1860-1906)Leo Keohane *Captain Jack WhiteTea/Coffee 10:45 – 11:00Dr Kim Lo Prete *Adela of BloisKatherine Cahill *Mrs. DelanyProf. Ged Martin *Charles Stewart ParnellLunch 12:30 – 13:15Dr Carmel Quinlan *The HaslamsDr Gerry Moran *Fr. Lavelle of PartryLaunch of CCS - IHSA and Aistir ConferencesVenue: The Moore Institute, 19:00Reception and Table QuizVenue: The College Bar, 20:00Saturday, 1 March*Conference Session One*Painéal 1: Modern Irish Political Biography*Venue: Room 201 9:15 – 10:40*John O’Donovan, U.C.C.
*Re-visioning William O’Brien (1852-1928)Stephen Kelly, U.C.D.
*Seán Lemass (1899-1971) and partition, 1945-1966: a figure in waitingGerald Hynes, N.U.I.M.
*Erskine Hamilton Childers (1905-1974): a reluctant Irish politician?Painéal 2: Ireland and World War One, Part I*Venue: Room 202 9:15 – 10:40*Véronique Bocahut, M.I.C.
*Carson, Redmond, Home Rule, and the First World WarFiona Devoy, U.C.C.
*Conscription and the radicalisation of Irish politics, 1914-18Pierre Ranger, Q.U.B. and University of Paris XII Val-de-Marne
*France and Irish nationalist propaganda during the First World WarPainéal 3: History of Medicine*Venue: Room 203 9:15 – 10:40*Laura Kelly, N.U.I.G.
*Irish medical students at the Univ. of Glasgow, 1859-1900Mary Hawkins, N.U.I.G.
*‘It was for me’: Nurses’ experience of their training, 1940s-1970sPainéal 4: Regional Studies: Limerick city and county*Venue: Room 204 9:15 – 10:40*Marie Taylor, M.I.C.
*The Anglo-Norman Settlement of Co. LimerickKieran Hoare, N.U.I.G.
*Limerick Corporation and royal government, 1534-1578Michael Deegan, M.I.C.
*Limerick merchants and the development of Limerick port c.1800-1835Painéal 5: Ecclesiastical History: Priests, Prelates, and Polity*Venue: Moore Institute 9:15 – 10:40*Cormac Begadon, N.U.I.M.
*The continental colleges and the formation of Dublin priests in the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuriesCaroline Gallagher, N.U.I.M. (IRCHSS)
*Bishop Thomas Lewis O’Beirne (?1747-1823): from a Roman Catholic seminary to the Church of Ireland See of MeathTae/Caife - Tea/Coffee 10:40 – 11:00*Conference Session Two*Painéal 1: Ireland and World War One, Part II*Venue: Room 201 11:00 – 12:25*Patrick Deignan, N.U.I.M.
*The Protestant community in Sligo during WWIColin Cousins, Q.U.B.
*‘Abiding monuments of England’s gratitude’: Post-war housing for ex-soldiers in Co. ArmaghBernard Kelly, N.U.I.G.
*‘A Tree can grow but from its roots’: the debate over the Merrion Square Great War memorialPainéal 2: Irish Media History*Venue: Room 202 11:00 – 12:25*Ursula O’Callaghan, M.I.C.
*Advertising and audience in Limerick’s eighteenth-century newspapersMark Wehrly, N.U.I.M. (IRCHSS)
*‘Farce upon the wheels of tragedy’: The John Jinks affair (1927) and the Irish pressConor Walls, N.U.I.G.
*Seven Ages: the definitive Irish documentary? A critical analysisPainéal 3: Women’s History*Venue: Room 203 11:00 – 12:25*Elaine Farrell, Q.U.B.
*The treatment of women convicted of infanticide in nineteenth century IrelandClaire Rush, Q.U.B.
*The success of girls’ schools in Ulster in the Irish Intermediate Education Board examinations, 1880-1910Sarah-Anne Buckley, U.C.C.
*‘Protective’ or merely ‘Prohibitive’? An examination of Irish and British legislation and policy towards women and children, 1922-1939Painéal 4: The Medieval World: Saints, Trade, and Travel*Venue: Room 204 11:00 – 12:25*Kerstin Lieser and Michael Bade, Johannes Gutenberg University, Mainz
*Hadrian- his travels and his trip to EnglandBerenike Walburg, University of St Andrews (Scotland)
*Sogdian long-distance trade from the late sixth to the early tenth centuriesLisa Dompert and Christian Müller, Johannes Gutenberg University, Mainz
*Rheinischer Karneval and St. Patrick’s Day- A comparison of traditional feast daysPainéal 5: Ireland and the British Empire*Venue: Moore Institute 11:00 – 12:25*Seán Rickard, M.I.C.
*Irish privateering during the American Revolutionary WarMary Clarke, Q.U.B.
*Irish responses to the Northcote Trevelyan Report on the Civil Service (1854-5)Elaine Doyle, Q.U.B.
*The Qua Iboe Mission and the British Empire: a case-study of Irish missionaries in south-eastern NigeriaLón - Lunch 12:25 – 13:45*Conference Session Three*Painéal 1: Ulster before World War One*Venue: Room 201 13:45 – 15:10*Lisa Meaney, Q.U.B.
*Politics and Society in Derry, c.1740-1780Kyle Hughes, U.U. Coleraine
*Scottish migrants in Victorian and Edwardian Belfast and the Belfast Benevolent Society of St AndrewRaymond Micheal Whelan, Q.U.B.
*The 1907 Dockers and Carters strike in BelfastPainéal 2: World War Two and its aftermath: Ireland, Britain and beyond*Venue: Room 202 13:45 – 15:10*Bryce Evans, U.C.D.
*Farewell to Plato’s cave: redefining the narrative of absence in Emergency IrelandJonathan Murphy, U.C.C.
*‘Selling Poland by the pound’: Britain’s betrayal of the Polish government-in-exile at the end of the Second World WarSarah O’Brien, M.I.C. (IRCHSS)
*Stormy Seas? English clerics versus Irish chaplains in post-war BritainPainéal 3: Reading, Writing, and Religion*Venue: Room 203 1.45 pm – 3.10 pm*Francesca Brazzotto, University of Trento (Italia)
*An introduction to PalaeographyKerstin Hetzel, Johannes Gutenberg University, Mainz
*The Beguines religious movementNina Klinkel and Angie Hoffman, Mainz
*The road to Protestantism: German piety and English policy?Painéal 4: Ireland: local and comparative case studies*Venue: Room 204 13:45 – 15:10*Benjamin Conrad and Sebastian Böhm, Johannes Gutenberg University, Mainz
*German and Irish emigration to the U.S. in the 19th century - a comparisonPaula Sojo Sandino, N.U.I.G. and Univ. of A Coruña
*Ireland and Galicia: Historical roots and cultural backgroundJackie Uí Chionna, N.U.I.G.
*The Galway Hooker: a history of the vernacular craft of Galway BayPainéal 5: Lands and Politics in Ireland 1865-1914*Venue: Moore Institute 13:45 – 15:10*Caroline Maguire, M.I.C.
*Crowds, organisers, and the I.R.B. in Co. Clare 1865-1905Brian Casey, N.U.I.M. (IRCHSS)
*‘A dangerously clever man’: Matt Harris 1880-1885, political pragmatism or political expedience?Tae/Caife - Tea/Coffee 15:10 – 15:30*Conference Session Four*Painéal 1: The Northern Troubles*Venue: Room 201 15:30 – 16:55*Sarah Campbell, U.C.D. (IRCHSS)
*Dublin is only a Sunningdale away? The SDLP, the Dublin government, and the Sunningdale agreementStuart Ciarnan Aveyard, Q.U.B.
*Army intervention, or lack thereof, during the Ulster Workers’ Council strike of 1974Eoin Clarke, Q.U.B.
*The minutes of the National Anti H-Block Armagh CommitteePainéal 2: Irish emigration in the nineteenth century*Venue: Room 202 15:30 – 16:55*Gabrielle Ashford, St. Patrick’s College (BÁC)
*The journals of William Burnie MD RN 1823-25, surgeon aboard the emigrant transport ship John Barry, cove of Cork to Quebec.Sarah Roddy, Q.U.B.
*Interpreting emigration from Irish convert communities, 1845-1855Eóin Mac Laughlin, N.U.I.M. (IRCHSS)
*Irish emigration in the later nineteenth century: a microfinance perspectivePainéal 3: The Sixteenth Century*Venue: Room 203 15:30 – 16:55*Andrew Sargent, N.U.I.G.
*A ‘Cankered subtle traitor’: The rebellion of the northern earls and the rising of Leonard DacreTonaí Ó Roduigh, N.U.I.G. (IRCHSS)
*Labouring and Skilled Construction workers’ wages during the Tudor period: a comparative analysis of Dublin and Lowland EnglandRuth Canning, U.C.C. (IRCHSS)
*Language and identity in sixteenth-century IrelandPainéal 4: Nationalism, and the birth of the Irish Free State*Venue: Room 204 15:30 – 16:55*Shane O’Meara, N.U.I.G.
*The Gaelic Athletic Association and the changing face of nationalist politics, 1890-1921Sinéad Kelly, N.U.I.M.
*Jail breaks and rescue attempts of I.R.A. personnel 1919-1921Kevin Dillon, T.C.D.
*The genesis of failure: The 1922 constitution committee and the drafting of Article 50A.G.M. of the CCS - IHSA Room 201 17:00*Aistir Review Room 202 17:00*Béile na Comhdhála (conf. dinner) The Western Hotel 20:00

Rooms 201 to 204 are located on the Slí Dála – Concourse
The Moore Institute is just off the Slí Dála – Concourse, near to the Bank of Ireland

Web: www.aistir.com
Web: www.CumannStaire.com Email: CumannStaire@socs.nuigalway.ie